

What do YOU think about bullying?

Hampshire County Council is looking for 4 young actors/writers from Hampshire Schools/Colleges to write a monologue on bullying for Anti-bullying Week 16-20 November 2009.

This year's theme for Anti-bullying week will be Cyberbullying. The four winners will be given the chance to showcase their work at a Conference on Anti-Bullying at Marwell Hotel on 16 October 2009.

We are looking for engaging stories and powerfully expressed opinions on any aspect of bullying you choose. It can be a true story or it can be fiction. Monologues should be about eight minutes long, or cover three or four sides of A4 paper. You can write and perform it yourself, or write a monologue for a friend to perform.

4 winners will be chosen from across the county:

2 winners from Years 10/11 and 2 winners from College or Years 12/13.

The deadline for submissions is Thursday 3rd September 2009. To enter, post or e-mail a copy of the monologue, along with a covering letter including name, school, year group, the name of the piece and the name of the actor (if it is not the author who will perform it) to:

Anti-Bullying Good Practice Group
Local Education Office, Havant
Hampshire, PO9 2EL

or email to: behaviour.task.team@hants.gov.uk

The four winners will be decided by a panel of judges, including young people and notified by week commencing 5 October 2009.
